IB Mission Statement

The International Baccalaureate® aims to develop inquiring, knowledgeable and caring young people who help to create a better and more peaceful world through intercultural understanding and respect. To this end the organization works with schools, governments and international organizations to develop challenging programmes of international education and rigorous assessment.

These programmes encourage students across the world to become active, compassionate and lifelong learners who understand that other people, with their differences, can also be right.

IB Learner Profile Attributes

IB learner profile

The aim of all IB programmes is to develop internationally minded people who, recognizing their common humanity and shared guardianship of the planet, help to create a better and more peaceful world.

As IB learners we strive to be:

INQUIRERS

We nurture our curiosity, developing skills for inquiry and research. We know how to learn independently and with others. We learn with enthusiasm and sustain our love of learning throughout life.

KNOWLEDGEABLE

We develop and use conceptual understanding, exploring knowledge across a range of disciplines. We engage with issues and ideas that have local and global significance.

THINKERS

We use critical and creative thinking skills to analyse and take responsible action on complex problems. We exercise initiative in making reasoned, ethical decisions.

COMMUNICATORS

We express ourselves confidently and creatively in more than one language and in many ways. We collaborate effectively, listening carefully to the perspectives of other individuals and groups.

PRINCIPLED

We act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness and justice, and with respect for the dignity and rights of people everywhere. We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences.

OPEN-MINDED

We critically appreciate our own cultures and personal histories, as well as the values and traditions of others. We seek and evaluate a range of points of view, and we are willing to grow from the experience.

CARING

We show empathy, compassion and respect. We have a commitment to service, and we act to make a positive difference in the lives of others and in the world around us.

RISK-TAKERS

We approach uncertainty with forethought and determination; we work independently and cooperatively to explore new ideas and innovative strategies. We are resourceful and resilient in the face of challenges and change.

BALANCED

We understand the importance of balancing different aspects of our lives—intellectual, physical, and emotional—to achieve well-being for ourselves and others. We recognize our interdependence with other people and with the world in which we live.

REFLECTIVE

We thoughtfully consider the world and our own ideas and experience. We work to understand our strengths and weaknesses in order to support our learning and personal development.

The IB learner profile represents 10 attributes valued by IB World Schools. We believe these attributes, and others like them, can help individuals and groups become responsible members of local, national and global communities.

BIS PYP Inclusion Policy

Philosophy

The Bodhi International School's (BIS) Inclusion policy aims to improve the quality of education for diverse learners by providing an appropriate and inclusive education to all students. The school seeks to accomplish this through training teachers, advocating the program in the community, committed service and through collaborative work with professionals related to the student in need.

Formulation and Review of the Inclusion Policy

The School Pedagogical Leadership Team and the Inclusion team, which comprises the Head of Counselling and the SEN facilitator, compile the policy, which is shared with the teachers for their feedback and suggestions. The SPLT and the inclusion team make the amendments suggested by the teachers and finalize the policy, which is shared with all the stakeholders. The frequency of the review of this policy is every three years or, as and when required or, if any changes suggested by the IB.

Inclusion Policy

Children studying at the Bodhi International School have a wide range of abilities, backgrounds, interests and cultures. It is the aim of BIS that each one of these children will reach their full potential in their academic, social and emotional development as well.

Quality teaching is that which is differentiated to meet the needs of the majority of students. Some students will need something additional to and different from what is provided for the majority of students; this is special educational provision and we use our best endeavours to ensure that provision is made for those who need it at BIS. We ensure that all staff in the school is able to identify and provide for those students who have special educational needs and/or disabilities to allow all students to join in the activities of the school.

Understanding Inclusion

Inclusion is an ongoing process that aims to increase access and engagement in learning for all students by identifying and removing barriers. This can only be successfully achieved in a culture of collaboration mutual respect, support and problem solving. Inclusion is an organizational paradigm that involves change. It is a continual process of increasing learning and participation for all students (Learning diversity in the IB programmes, SEN within the IB programmes, pg.3, August 2010).

IB principles of an Inclusive education

Education is enhanced by the creation of affirmative, responsive environments that promote a sense of belonging, safety, self-worth and whole growth for every student. Learning diversity is valued as a rich resource for building inclusive communities. Full potential is unlocked through connecting with and building on previous knowledge. All learners belong and experience equal opportunities to participate and engage in quality learning. All students in the school fully participates in an IB education and are empowered to exercise their rights and accept their responsibilities as citizens.

All students in the school community develop the IB learner profile attributes.

All students experience success as a key component of learning.

(Learning diversity and inclusion in IB programmes, pg.5, January 2016)

The IB's principles of teaching for Learning Diversity

- The four principles of good practice in the IB learning cycle.

Figure 1

Visual representation of the four principles of good practice in an IB SEN learning cycle

(Learning diversity and inclusion in IB programmes, pg.6, January 2016)

1. Affirming identity and building self esteem

At the core of all learning is the affirmation of student identity to promote self-esteem. Student with a positive identity are more able to take the risks necessary for successful learning. An affirmative model of identity ensures that all students are visible and valued.

(Learning diversity and inclusion in IB programmes, pg.6, January 2016)

2. Valuing prior knowledge

New learning and understanding are constructed on previous experiences and conceptual understanding in a developmental continuum. When planning the range of new learning that can take place in any individual, previous learning experiences or prior knowing must be taken into consideration.

(Learning diversity in the IB programmes: SEN with the IB programmes, pg.6, August 2010)

3. Scaffolding

Scaffolding is a dynamic practice in the learning process. Scaffolding should foster learners' increasing independence in taking responsibilities for developing strategies for their own learning.

(Learning diversity in the IB programmes: SEN with the IB programmes, pg.6, August 2010)

4. Extending learning

Teachers can help learners extend their learning by combining high expectations with numerous opportunities for learner-centered practice and interaction with cognitively rich materials and experiences.

(Learning diversity in the IB programmes: SEN with the IB programmes, pg.7, August 2010)

Purpose of the BIS Policy

In accordance with the IB, it is BIS' intent and purpose to:

- To create and maintain an inclusive educational environment for all learners.
- To safeguard that the learning support is provided as per students diverse learning needs and profile.
- To advocate inclusion policy to all BIS stakeholders including, principal, teaching staff, coordinators and parents.

- To clearly communicate the support opportunities and various accommodations those are available to students.
- To promote effective learning through differentiation and scaffolding.

BIS Inclusive Philosophy

The school supports the policy of IB regarding students with Learning support requirements and assessments access requirements. The IB believes that all candidates should be allowed to demonstrate their ability under assessment conditions that are as fair as possible. Support and/or access required to enable some candidates, who have the aptitude to meet or curriculum and assessment requirements, reach their full potential in learning and assessment.

(Candidates with assessment access requirements, pg.2, September 2013).

The inclusive philosophy also aims to:

- Provide access and appropriate education and opportunity to every student
- Equip students with appropriate skill training strategies and support for mainstream education.
- To remove barriers to learning and participation.
- Incorporate views of all stakeholders in offering inclusive educational services.
- Create an affirmative and responsive environment that promotes a sense of belonging, safety, self-worth and all-round development for every student.
- To build inclusive communities by valuing learning diversity.
- Ensuring success as a key component of learning for all students.

It is essential that all students feel safe, secure and cared for in the school environment. Through mutual respect, collaboration, support and problem solving, BIS aims to create an environment that is friendly and welcoming to all individuals (“The IB Guide to Inclusive Education”)

At BIS, the Learning Support Department offers both remedial and counselling services to the needs of the entire school. The team comprises primarily of a special educator and school counsellor. The team works on the premises during school hours.

The special educator focuses more on the student’s academic needs in learning. This educational support is designed to make sure that the inclusion model is in position such that these students get adjusted to the regular classroom instruction.

Whereas, the counsellor is there to offer advice to students at crucial turning points in their lives along with addressing emotional and behavioural concerns.

Rights and Responsibilities of the School:

Bodhi International School through its Inclusion Policy will have the following rights and responsibilities:

- The School will maintain its academic standards
- Request for a student for reasonable accommodations and academic adjustments
- Deny a request for accommodations or adjustments academically
- Mainstream a student after careful considerations or keep them in the learning support department as required.

Responsibilities of the students:

- Meet the school’s qualifications and essential academic, technological and institutional standards.

- Identify himself/herself in a timely manner as an individual with a disability when requesting for accommodation from the appropriate service provider.
- Provide documentation from a qualified source that verifies the nature of the disability, functional limitations and the need for specific accommodations
- Attend all classes both in the general and special education classroom
- Request for alternative testing and accommodations as deemed necessary in consultations with the Learning Support Department.

Inclusion and Admission Policy and Practices

Differently abled children will be considered for admission on an equal basis with all other children according to the criteria set out in the School's Policy taking into account the suitability of the children to mainstream education and availability of resources and facilities to meet that child's needs.

Nature of learning difficulties:

The inclusive admission policy of BIS considers students with mild, moderate and severe Learning Difficulties, Attention Deficit Hyper Activity Disorder, Attention Deficit Disorder, etc.

- Mild Difficulty: may be defined as learning problems in one area of academics, either language or Math. The problems exhibit themselves in the areas of comprehension, sequencing, auditory and visual processing at a mild level. These levels are close to the normal range scores as compared to their peers.
- Moderate Difficulty: may be defined as learning problems in two areas of academics both in Language and Math. The intensity of the problems is within a standard score range which is in the lower average range when compared to their peers. It can also be exhibited as a problem in one academic domain and be co morbid with attention deficits or behavioural concern.

- Severe Difficulties: may be defined as learning problems in more than two areas of academic, communication and social skills. The intensity of the problems is within a standard score range which is in the lower average range when compared to their peers. It can also be exhibited as a problem in academic domain and be co morbid with attention deficits or behavioural concern.

The support categories for inclusion are:

1. Communication and Interaction (for example speech and language)
2. Cognition and Learning (for example dyslexia and dyscalculia), Social Mental and emotional health and Sensory and/ or physical (for example hearing impaired)
3. A cognitive disadvantage which affects their ability to learn at the same rate as the majority of their peers.
4. A specific learning difficulty which may or may not be linked to a cognitive disability.
5. A speech and language impairment which may affect their ability to comprehend.
6. A behavioural impairment affecting their ability to concentrate and therefore learn effectively.
7. An emotional deprivation which can affect their ability to learn.
8. Students who speak English as their second language (ESL) (Students who speak English as a foreign language or students who speak a different language at school to the one, they speak at home, but in addition have a learning difficulty as well)
9. A combination of any of the needs listed above. (Students must not be regarded as having a learning difficulty solely because the language or form of language of their home is different from the language in which they are taught)

Admission Policy for Learning Support Students

The admission policy of BIS considers the following students for admissions:

DIFFICULTIES	RANGE
Pervasive Developmental Disorder (PDD) Ex. Autism Disorder, Asperger's Syndrome	Severity should be Mild-Moderate (Shadow teacher if severe) with at least average IQ
Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)*	Severity should be average (Shadow teacher if severe) with at least average IQ
Cerebral Palsy	Severity should be Mild-Moderate (Shadow teacher if severe) with at least average IQ
Deafness/Hearing Loss	IQ should be average
Down Syndrome	Severity should be Mild-Moderate (Shadow teacher if severe) with at least average IQ
Epilepsy	IQ should be average
Specific Learning Disabilities (Eg: Reading, Writing and Math Disabilities)	Admission to all with remedial teacher
Mental Retardation	Severity should be Mild-Moderate
Slow Learner	Admission to all with remedial teacher
Speech and Language Impairments	IQ should be average
Visual Impairments	IQ should be average
Weak in Reading, writing, spoken, expressive languages and math due to demographic reasons, first-generation learner	Admission to all with remedial help
Weak in studies because of change in board, medium or first-generation learners	Admission to all with remedial help

Procedure at BIS

Identification of students with special needs-

A collaborative effort on the part of the Coordinators, homeroom teachers and parents along with the Learning Support and Wellness Department helps aid and initiate the identification process better.

Children who come with documentation of their learning difficulties are interviewed by the Learning Support personnel and the coordinators to ensure that the student can fit into the environment. Students can also be referred by the teachers or parents.

Any deviations from their chronological age must be noted and referred to the learning and wellness support department. The deviations are as under:

Grades	Deviation
Primary Division (Grade 1 to 6)	>1-1.5 years
Middle Division (Grade 7 to 10)	>1.5-2 years
Upper Division (Grade 11-12)	> 2.5 years

Table 2

Referrals:

- In school, students will be identified through referrals by home room teachers, parents, coordinators.
- Previous documented history and other reliable sources.
- The Learning and Wellness support department conducts general classroom observations to identify any student at risk. Classroom Observation forms are filled in accordingly.

- The home room teacher consults the Learning and Wellness Support Department for concerns with the student.
- A Teacher Observation Form {TOF} is submitted to the department, with their inputs.
- The Learning Support teacher will observe the child or may conduct informal assessments / checklists if required.
- The Learning and Wellness Support teacher then decides if the child should be a part of the programme and receive additional support.
- The team along with the coordinator, contact the parents for a meeting to discuss the outcome of the screening and the next step for the student. This is documented in a Parent Meeting Record Form.
- An informed consent or an informed refusal form is then taken with the parents' consent.

Process followed before one: one session begins

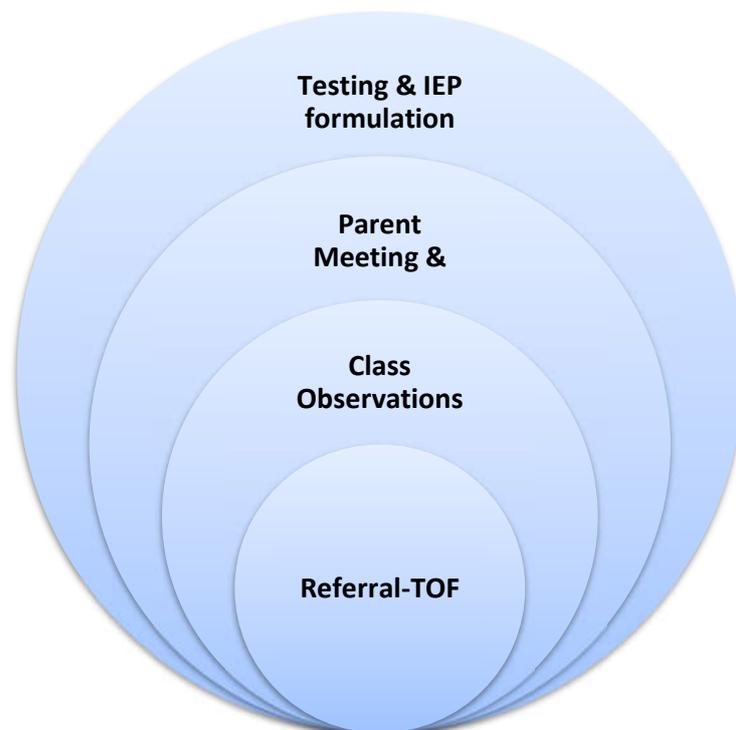

Fig 3

Assessment:

The purpose of assessment in special education is for screening, placement, program evaluation and evaluation of pupil progress. Assessment is a comprehensive process of which testing is one component. Assessment in special education enables the staff to embark upon the most desirable approach to instruction and in diagnosing and treating the students' needs. No one test will be used to critically evaluate the students' present level of performance. The types of assessment that will be administered for evaluation purpose are:

- Standardized tests
- Social skills screening test
- Curriculum Based Measurement

Formulation of IEP:

The results from the assessment will help the Learning Support personnel to develop an IEP (Individualized Education Plan) for every student enrolled in the program. The IEP expectations are explained below. The tailor-made program will then be evaluated periodically to see if the method used is effective or needs change. Resources to enhance students learning will be provided. (Manipulative, software, visual aids, computer activities)

Individualized Education Plan (IEP)

The IEP Document will include the following:

- A statement of the child's present levels of educational performance including how the child's disability/exceptionality affects the child's involvement and progress in the general curriculum. A statement of measurable goals and objectives.
- A statement of the program modification or supports for the school personnel that will be provided for the child.
- A statement of supplementary aids to be provided for the child by school and at home if needed.
- The IEP will be based on the individual needs of the child to create a learning environment to have a beneficial education for the student.

Intervention Process:

Learning Support teachers will provide services in a variety of ways. Students may work with:

- Homeroom teachers with accommodations to the curriculum as per IEP
- Learning Support teacher can give classroom support if needed
- Learning Support Room with a special education teacher.

In the Learning Support Room, the student will go through a remediation program on basic skills and also work with the class curriculum to keep up with the class expectations. Students will receive instruction in readiness skills, Cognitive skills, academic skills and Study skills

COMMUNICATION:

Communication to the parents and teachers is an integral part of the system which is maintained throughout the year with relevant facilities of the school.

IEP Meetings – The IEP Meetings are held during the year with the parents of students with learning needs. It discusses the educational plan of the child for the semester and reviews the progress of the previous semester.

Evaluation- Evaluation is conducted once a year to affirm the effectiveness of the Learning Support Program.

Evaluation will be conducted in the following areas:

- Reviewing files to make sure that necessary documents are filed.
 - Ensuring that IEP"s adequately meet the needs of the students and the interventions documented are effective in the students learning process.
- For constructive criticism Learning Support teachers will evaluate to see if the IEP goals are implemented in their teaching

Shadow Teacher:

Students with very severe concerns may require personal assistance, over and above what can be offered by the home room teacher and the Learning Support teachers. If deemed necessary by the Resource Team, the same could be arranged by the parent.

MAINSTREAMING

The mainstreaming of the students is based on the following factors thereafter the decision is made with the consent of the parents.

- Academic performance
- Feedback from teachers

- Parents' Consent

CONFIDENTIALITY

Bodhi International School believes that all information about candidates should be kept confidential. Any communication regarding student learning support status will be retained within their file, access to which is constrained to Head of School, coordinator and the inclusive education team. Data retained by the school on any student will be kept confidential. Only through consultation with the parent/guardian will information and/or advice be communicated to para-educators in the benefit of the student.

A consolidated Summary of the Learning Support Program

Procedure followed at BIS is as follows:

Accommodations & Modification for Students with Learning Difficulties at BIS:

In order to participate successfully in the general education program, accommodations and modifications are provided for students with documented learning disabilities. Accommodations allow a student to complete the same assignment or test as other students but with a change in the timing, formatting, setting, scheduling, response or presentation the accommodation should not alter in a significant way what the assignment in the test measures.

On the other hand, a modification is used as an adjustment to an assignment or a test that alters the standard of what the test/assignment measures. Doing an alternate easily achievable test than the standard test is an example of modification.

The Learning Support Department aims to meet the academic standards with the necessary accommodations and modifications as per the requirements of the individual student needs as mentioned in their Individualised Educational Plan.

Dear Parents,

We, the team of the Inclusive Education Cell (IEC) has been set-up in April 2019 to facilitate needs of children with Learning and Behavioural problems. At Bodhi we emphasize on "Inclusion" of every child in the normal curriculum, even if the child may have special needs. Our mission is to include every child irrespective of his / her concerns in the school academic set-up as against excluding the child from the class. Without your cooperation and consent we cannot do so therefore need your consent.

Scoring Instructions

For the ADHD screen, the symptoms assessment component screens for symptoms that meet the criteria for both inattentive (items 1-9) and hyperactive-impulsive ADHD (items 10-18). To meet DSM-IV criteria for the diagnosis of ADHD, one must have at least 6 responses of "Often" or "Very Often" (scored 2 or 3) to either the 9 inattentive or 9 hyperactive-impulsive items, or both and a score of 4 or 5 on any of the Performance items (48-55). There is a place to record the number of symptoms that meet these criteria in each subgroup.

The Vanderbilt Assessment Scale also contains items that screen for 3 other co-morbidities: oppositional defiant disorder, conduct disorder, and anxiety/depression.

For the oppositional defiant disorder screen there must be a score of 2 or 3 on 4 of the 8 items (19-26) on the subscale and a score of 4 or 5 on any of the Performance items (48-55).

For the conduct disorder screen there must be a score of 2 or 3 on 3 out of the 14 items (27-40) on this subscale and a score of 4 or 5 on any of the Performance items (48-55).

For the anxiety/depression screen there must be a score of 2 or 3 on 3 of the 7 items (41-47) and a score of 4 or 5 on any of the Performance items 48-55).
